Jeff Dodson has never been one to back down from a challenge and that was the primary reason he signed on to be the first Division I coach in the history of the Fighting Sioux baseball program.

"The biggest reason I took this job was the simple fact of being able to build a Division I baseball program from the ground up," Dodson said. "I felt like it would be a very intriguing task."

The first-year head coach will inherit a veteran club that posted a 14-23 record in its final season as a Division II member in the North Central Conference.

The Sioux return seven position players that made at least 27 starts a year ago and a designated hitter that made 30 starts. Dodson also has a pitching staff that returns seven members, who made 55 appearances and 27 starts in 2008.

Junior Andrew Gudmonson brings the most experience to the field for the Sioux with 72 career starts.

Dodson admits having that amount of experience should help make the transition a smoother one, but there will still be the jitters that come with playing at a higher level. "I think the big thing is they have been on the field in the college game," Dodson said. "Once again, 'Was it the Division I game?' No. They are going to be nervous. I am nervous every year at the first game, so I am going to be right there with them.

"It's the butterflies you have, but as with any job or task, the more you are around it, the more you get comfortable with it, then the better you become at what you are trying to do."

However, having that experience will not guarantee anything for the Sioux starters from a year ago. Dodson opened the fall with a clean slate for the 29 players on his roster.

Dodson and his coaching staff took advantage of the fall to work with the team and implement his way of doing things and he came away impressed with how the team adjusted to his style of coaching.

"They have been absolutely tremendous," he added. "They have done everything we have asked them to do. That is one thing as a coach that you can notice right away, that people are going to do what you ask them to do. If you hold them accountable for their setbacks and make sure they understand where their goals are and what they need to do - we will succeed here.

"We need to make sure they understand being a part of an entire scheme and that they see the importance of their work in the overall program. I think that is one thing they have done already and that is knowing they are a vital piece of this program."

The fall practice time also allowed Dodson to get a feel for what type of players he will have on his roster this spring. Here is the first-year coaches' take on what Sioux fans can expect to see from his club in 2009.

Outfield

"We have three or four guys out there that are all versatile in which spot they can play. There is Andrew Marek (Sr., East Grand Forks, Minn.), Josh Lagein (So., Devils Lake, N.D.) and a couple of other guys, Aaron Cook (Jr., Erskine, Minn.) and Joe Krivarchka (So., Lisbon, N.D.) along with Andy Sadler (So., Grand Forks, N.D.), who will also do some catching for us this year. We have several guys that are capable and we should have a good defensive outfield."

Infield

"We have several guys with a lot of experience. We have Andrew Gudmunson (Sr., Minot, N.D.) at third, who will also pitch some for us this year. Kyle Bolander (RFr., Hermantown, Minn.) will play third as well. He redshirted last year.

"Josh Nelson (Jr., Apple Valley, Minn.) will be our shortstop and Jake Magner (Grand Rapids, Minn.) will be backing him up and playing some first base too.

"Jabby Bakhit (Jr., Omaha, Neb.) will be back at second base for us and Daniel Ross (Brooklyn Park, Minn.) will be playing there as well. Dan is more of a utility guy for us, who can do several different things for us. Jabby will probably start at second and Josh at short for us.

"At first base, we have several different guys. Anthony Brenner (Jr., Chaska, Minn.) and his younger brother Nick (So., Chaska, Minn.) will play there along with Magner. Those three will be competing for a lot of time at first this season. We just have to play pitch and catch in the infield."

Senior Andrew Marek batted .304 with three home runs and 26 RBIs during his first season with the Sioux in 2008. He was the only UND player to start all 37 games at the same position a year ago (left field).

Catchers

"The guy right out of the gate who will have the best shot to be catching for us on opening day is Andrew Sadler (So., Grand Forks, N.D.). He is a guy who can play infield, outfield, catch and do a lot of things for us.

"Ryne Jungling (Jr., Mandan, N.D.) is another guy that has improved so much over the fall working with (Assistant) Coach (J.C.) Field. And we have Jordan Buck (Fr., Apple Valley, Minn.), who we are not sure if we will redshirt him or not. We are working all those guys behind the plate to find the best combination to work with our pitchers."

Pitchers

"Roles are still yet to be defined when it comes to our pitching staff because we were only able to evaluate the scrimmages during the fall. We are going to use the first part of the season to find out what our kids are capable of. We have several guys that have a chance to start. Sam Anderson (So., Bemidji, Minn.) is a big, strong kid who has some durability I think. He was injured for part of last year.

"Brandon Baumgartner (So., Coon Rapids, Minn.) had a very credible season as a freshman last season. We will count on him to give us some innings. Mike Lueck (Sr., Victoria, Minn.) has a chance. He probably has the strongest arm on the team, but for him it is a matter of being able to execute pitches. I feel like he has worked hard during the fall to get better.

"Zach Salfer (RFr., Sleepy Eye, Minn.) is a guy who will have a chance to get some innings for us as a redshirt freshman. Derek Biermaier has probably been our best strike-thrower during the fall and David Lind (Fr., Brooklyn Park, Minn.) tried out during the fall and really impressed us. He commands the zone, has a couple of pitches and if he does not get shell-shocked when he goes in there, I think he will be a good pitcher for us.

"Kyle Panning (RFr., Hamburg, Minn.) is another guy, depending on his health, who could eat up some innings for us. David Spies (So., Grand Forks, N.D.) is a lefty who will get some action and Cody Wilcoxson (Fr. Aurora, Colo.) is another lefty with some talent. He is a guy who can do some good things.

"Two other guys that we expect to contribute are Jameson Benson (Jr., Karlstad, Minn.) and Scott Eul (Rosemount, Minn.). Both guys have good, live arms. Benson led the team in saves a year ago and will be a go-to-guy out of the pen again this year. Eul redshirted a year ago, but will see action for us this year."

JEFF DODSON

HEAD COACH
LIVINGSTON, 1993
1ST SEASON

26

On June 20, 2008, Jeff Dodson officially became the first Division I baseball coach in the history of North Dakota baseball. Dodson takes over a program that spent the previous 50 seasons playing at the Division II level in the North Central Conference.

"I am thrilled to be the new head coach at the University of North Dakota," Dodson said. "It is not often that you get to be on the ground floor of building a Division I program, and I look forward to the challenge."

"I would like to thank Athletic Director Brian Faison for giving me the opportunity to build on the UND baseball tradition and establish another fine Division I athletic program for UND. I would also like to thank Mark Hogan and Southeast Missouri State for giving me my first D-I coaching experience."

Dodson enters his first season at UND after five years of assistant coaching at Southeast Missouri State, an NCAA Division I school in Cape Girardeau, Mo.

At Southeast Missouri State, Dodson served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach Mark Hogan, who is Southeast's all-time winningest baseball coach. Prior to his stint at Southeast Missouri, Dodson spent seven seasons as the head coach at Martin Methodist College, an NAIA school in Pulaski, Tenn. Dodson produced a 190-144 record at Martin Methodist, including four winning seasons in his last five.

Southeast Missouri State's 2008 recruiting class was ranked 91st in the nation by Collegiate Baseball, and Dodson recruited and signed three All-Americans – Brad Smith, Nick Harris and Jim Klocke – since joining the Southeast coaching staff in 2004.

This past season, the Redhawks finished 26-26 overall and 12-13 (sixth) in the Ohio Valley Conference and advanced to the conference tournament championship round before falling to Eastern Illinois.

While at Martin Methodist, Dodson coached four players into the professional ranks. During his tenure, seven players were named All-Americans, eight all-region, and 35 all-conference. In 2000, his pitching staff led the NAIA with a national-best 3.11 earned run average, and pitcher John Ogiltrie was named TranSouth pitcher of the year and a first-team All-American. That same year, Dodson's team broke the school record for wins, finishing with a 42-16 mark.

While Dodson was head coach, his Martin Methodist teams broke nearly every school record and in 2003 his team qualified for the NAIA Region XI postseason tournament with an overall record of 35-20.

Before Martin Methodist, Dodson was head coach at Bevell State Community College for two seasons (1995-96).

Dodson also served as an associate scout with the Philadelphia Phillies from 2001-2003. Three of his players from Bevell went on to play professional baseball and 12 went on to a four-year program.

Thirty-eight of his former players have gone on to become coaches.

Dodson earned his associate's degree in physical education from Bevell State in 1989, his bachelor's degree in the same field from Livingston University in 1993, and his master's degree from Emporia State in 2002.

DODSON ON HIS COACHING STAFF ...

"The first guy I brought with me was J.C. Field. He was a catcher at the University of Missouri and a very good player. I got to know him as a player and then he came to coach with us at Southeast Missouri State last year as a volunteer. He is a high-energy guy who brings a lot of enthusiasm. He is really good with the kids and has a great ability to recruit."

"Brian DeVillers was retained from last year's staff. After talking with Brian and going through the process of my interview with him, he showed me signs of having really good baseball ties in this area of North Dakota, Minnesota and Iowa. He is branching out with the recruiting part of it to the West. I felt like he was a really good guy. He had a great feel for the alumni, great feel for the tradition of UND having been a player here.

"Eric Hoffman was basically a guy who fell in our lap. We were fortunate that he did. He is a young guy that played at Northern Iowa and is from nearby Erskine, Minn. He has a great background as a pitcher and an outfielder, so that makes him a viable person to work with the kids in our program."

J.C. FIELD

ASSISTANT COACH (MISSOURI, '06)

The 2009 season will begin J.C. Field's coaching career with the University of North Dakota Fighting Sioux baseball team.

Field spent the 2007-08 season as a volunteer coach for Southeast Missouri State University where he worked with the outfield and served as the first base coach. He was also involved with the development of the catchers and hitters, as well as recruiting.

Prior to his move to coaching, Field played 46 games as a catcher for the Frontier League Evansville Otters and was a color commentator for ESPN Radio 1580 KTGR where he covered Missouri baseball. In addition, he has served as Missouri Baseball Camp assistant and assistant baseball tournament director.

A native of Tucson, Ariz., Field graduated in 2006 from the University of Missouri where he received a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies with an emphasis in communications, sports management and sociology. While at Mizzou he played two years as a catcher with 96 starts. The Tigers made back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances (2005 and 2006) and were the Malibu Regional Champions in 2006 where Field was named to the All-Malibu Regional Team. Field also played two years with Pima Community College, where he received an associates degree in liberal arts in 2004.

BRIAN DEVILLERS

ASSISTANT COACH (NORTH DAKOTA, '03)

29

Brian DeVillers in his second season as an assistant coach with the Fighting Sioux baseball program. DeVillers' primary responsibilities will be working with the Sioux infielder and hitters, while also help with recruiting. Prior to joining the UND coaching staff, he served as the assistant baseball coach for Red River High School from 2004-2007. During his two years he assisted in leading the Roughriders to two state tournament appearances.

A Grand Forks, N.D. native and graduate of Grand Forks Red River High School, DeVillers was an honorable mention USA Today High School All-American in 1999. That same year he helped lead the Grand Forks Royals to a North Dakota State Legion Championship and tied the program win record. He would also go on to set the program career and single season record in home runs and RBIs. That same year he was named North Dakota Non-School Athlete of the Year by the North Dakota Associated Press.

DeVillers' is also a former third baseman for the Fighting Sioux. He was a two-time All-NCC selection, in 2001 and 2003, during his playing career. DeVillers ranks in the top-10 on UND's all-time list in career hits (10th place, 164), runs (10th, 127), triples (sixth, 5), home runs (tied for fourth, 31), runs batted in (sixth, 136), total bases (fifth, 297), and walks (sixth, 84).

DeVillers is also a graduate of UND, holding a bachelor of arts degree in social sciences.

ERIC HOFFMANN

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH (NORTHERN IOWA, '08)

31

Eric Hoffmann begins his coaching career at UND as a volunteer assistant coach.

Prior to his move to UND, Hoffmann played for the Rockford Riverhawks (2008) and the Sioux City Explorers (2007). He also played two seasons (2005, 2006) with the Northwoods League Rochester Honkers, who won the league championship in 2006 with a 54-16 mark. This summer Hoffmann will return to Rochester where he will be a part of the Honkers' coaching staff.

Hoffmann was a 2007 Missouri Valley Conference honorable mention as an outfielder for the University of Northern Iowa. He finished the season with the Panthers second on the team with a .342 batting average, 55 hits and 31 RBI. In 2004 and 2005, he was named to the all-region first team and all-district first team while playing for Iowa Central Community College.

A native of Erskine, Minn., Hoffmann played four years of high school baseball at Win-E-Mac High School, where he was a two-time all-state honoree. During his senior year, he was named the Minnesota Class A Player of the Year and the Pine to Prairie Player of the Year.

A 2008 graduate of the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, Hoffmann has a bachelors of arts degree in general studies and a coaching minor. He also holds an associative arts degree from Iowa Central Community College, located in Fort Dodge, Iowa.

QUINN PETERSON

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Quinn Peterson enters his third year as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at UND after having spent the previous two-and-a-half years as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Kansas State University.

Born and raised in Stromsburg, Neb., Peterson received his bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Nebraska-Omaha in 2004, and received his master's degree from Kansas State in 2006.

Peterson is a certified strength coach through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. He is also a certified Level I Olympic weightlifting club coach.

Peterson and his wife, Emily, have two daughters, Lilly (3) and Eden (1).

JOHN FLATT

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

John Flatt enters his first season as an assistant athletic trainer at UND. Flatt currently handles all athletic training assignments for the baseball and women's soccer teams.

Flatt completed a masters of science in exercise science at North Dakota State University in December of 2007. He spent the previous year as the head athletic trainer at Saint Stephen's Episcopal School (Prep) in Bradenton, Fla.

In May of 2003, Flatt graduated from Minnesota Duluth with a bachelor's degree of applied science in exercise science with a concentration in athletic training. He was a redshirt freshman on the Bulldogs' football team before knee injuries ended his playing career.

Flatt has also spent time as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Concordia College (2003-05), then served as an assistant director at Concordia from January 2006 to June 2007. He became the interim head athletic trainer at the school in Moorhead, Minn., from March 2007 to June 2007.

Flatt's wife, Shan (Zaffke), is in her second year as a medical student at UND.

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

With the move to Division I baseball on the horizon, the Fighting Sioux wrapped up their 50th and final season in the North Central Conference in 2008.

Fittingly, the Sioux won its final regular season conference tilt in dramatic fashion against St. Cloud State at Kraft Field on May 3. UND took a 7-4 decision from the Huskies, rallying for four runs in the bottom of the sixth to preserve the seven-inning win.

In all, the Sioux won 311 games during their NCC run, which included two championships and two NCAA Tournament appearances.

During the final season as a Division II squad, interim head coach Timm Pint guided UND to a 14-23 record and a 5-15 mark in NCC play.

The Sioux posted a 1-2 record in their last NCC postseason tournament. UND dropped its first game to St. Cloud State 8-4, then defeated Augustana 4-3 to stave off elimination. SCSU then put an end to the 2008 campaign, dropping the Sioux, 12-4, in the semifinals.

During the regular season, UND saved most of its offensive heroics for Senior Scott Schmidt led the Sioux regulars with a .369 batting average in 2008. He was a perfect 5-for-5 in stolen bases and added 11 RBI.

the Minnesota Duluth series, when the team split four games with the Bulldogs and scored 42 runs. Catcher Ryne Jungling registered seven RBIs in a 14-9 Sioux win in game two—his total was just one shy of UND's single-game record. The Sioux then scored 11 runs in a game-three setback before exploding for 15 runs in game four.

During that fourth game, UND jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the opening frame. Sophomore Andrew Gudmunson drove in five of those runs in the first with a two-run double and three-run homer. The Sioux would end up needing every one of those runs as the held off a furious rally by the Bulldogs to escape with a 15-13 win.

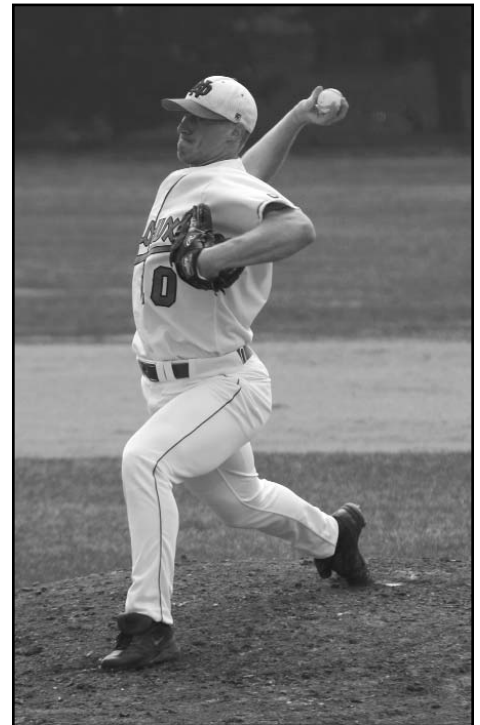

Both veteran and young players contributed throughout the season for UND as four regulars ended up hitting .300 or better. Seniors Scott Schmidt and Chris Gulsvig provided strong play throughout the campaign.

Schmidt wound up with a team-best .369 average in 26 starts, splitting time between right field (15 starts) and catcher (11 starts). Gulsvig, who started 35 games at first base, hit .345 and was second on the team with 12 doubles.

Sophomore Jabby Bakhit and newcomer Andrew Marek rounded out the Sioux quartet of .300 hitters. Bakhit started 34 games at second base and hit .340 after seeing limited action as a freshman in 2007. Marek transferred in from Iowa Central Community College and provided an instant impact for the Sioux. The junior started all 37 games in left field and was a fixture in the three-hole throughout the season. He finished with a .304 average and was second on the team in home runs (three) and RBIs (26).

Marek trailed only Gudmunson in those two power categories as the Nebraska transfer led the squad with five homers and 33 RBIs. It was Gudmunson's second full season to start at third for the Sioux.

On the mound, junior Mike Lueck led the Sioux with a 4-4 record and 4.24

Senior Sean Cooley tossed a one-hit shutout (seven innings) against Augustana on April 28. Cooley finished his senior season with three wins.

ERA. The right-hander tallied the final win for the Sioux as a Division II squad, leading UND to a 4-3 victory over Augustana in the NCC Tournament. For Lueck, it was his team-leading sixth complete game of the season as he allowed only one earned run on five hits and struck out seven Vikings.

Senior Sean Cooley picked up three wins in his final season with the Sioux. He posted the lone shutout of the season for the staff when he blanked the Vikings on April 28. Cooley allowed just one hit in seven innings of work that day. Sophomore Jameson Benson led UND with three saves in 11.2 innings of work.

Senior Scott Gulsvig (left) and sophomore Jabby Bakhit (right) were both named to the 2008 NCC All-Conference team at the conclusion of the season.

Gulsvig batted .345 with a pair of home runs and 18 RBI in his final season with the Sioux.

Bakhit registered a .340 batting average with five steals and 14 RBI in the first extensive action of his UND career. Bakhit made 34 starts at second base.

The 2008 season marked the final one in Division II and as members of the North Central Conference for the Sioux. The team will make the transition to the Division I level in 2009.

4/26/03	John Shonka	Rockhurst (4-0)	7 IP, 1 BB, 8 K

Note: The University of North Dakota has had five no-hitters, including one perfect game. The scenario surrounding the perfect game is a unique one. In a March 30, 2000 doubleheader with Minot State University, UND's Brett Gadiant threw a no-hitter in the opener. In the nightcap, UND's Bryan Larson logged the school's first, and only, perfect game.
